About Me

I am a motivated and results-driven professional with a Master's degree in History, complemented by a robust academic foundation in Geography and Political Science. With a solid understanding of computer applications, evidenced by my CCC certification, I bring both technical and analytical skills to the table. My experience in organizing and leading climate change campaigns, along with success in national-level speech competitions, has honed my leadership and communication abilities. I am passionate about contributing to impactful projects and thrive in dynamic environments. I am eager to apply my diverse skill set to a forward-thinking organization where I can make meaningful contributions and continue to grow professionally.
